It shall be her duty to welcome the incoming class each year by a formal address.
She shall have power to recommend such measures as she may think necessary and these will receive the vote of the members.

On the death of a member, she shall speak for the Association expressing its sympathy and sorrow.
She may fill all vacancies by officers pro tempore.
She may appoint committees for the usual or unusual duties of the Association.

SEC. 2.—In case of the removal, death, or absence of the President, the Vice-President shall be authorized to fill her place and duties until the expiration of the term of office.

Sec. 3.—The duties of the Corresponding Secretary shall be as follows:

She shall keep informed as to the whereabouts of every member and notify them of the place and time of each meeting.

On the death of a member, she shall inform the Association and in its name shall send resolutions of respect and sympathy to relatives and friends.

It shall be her duty to prepare, send or receive all notifications or writings which pertain to the Association.

Sec. 4.—It shall be the duty of the Recording Secretary to ascertain the expenses and levy a proportionate entrance fee and annual dues upon each member.

Each year, she shall prepare and publicly read a report and the minutes of the session of the preceding year.

She must receive from the Corresponding Secretary a list of the members and their addresses, which must be held convenient for reference.

Sec. 5.—The Treasurer shall have charge of all funds received and shall, each year, prepare and publicly read a report of the income, expenses incurred, &c.

She shall be authorized to pay all orders drawn by the President and countersigned by the Recording Secretary.
ARTICLE III.

To be eligible to the position of member in this Association, each person must have completed the course of study and received the diploma of Lindenwood College.

ARTICLE IV.

A meeting shall be held each year during commencement week at a time most convenient to the President of the College.

ARTICLE V.

At these meetings, the incoming class shall be welcomed and received as members in a set speech by the President, the reports of Recording Secretary and Treasurer shall be read, and the election for the following year be held.

ARTICLE VI.

One, or more members, shall be appointed annually by a majority vote of the Alumnae, and it shall be her duty to prepare and publicly deliver an address upon any subject she may select.
