Lindenwood Sets Sports Program

The Lindenwood Colleges summer sports program conducted in St. Louis for all youths, will begin June 11 and run through July 18. Instruction in outdoor and indoor sports will be given at Beaumont High School in north St. Louis and adjoining fields and playgrounds.

The program will be conducted four days a week, Monday through Thursday, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. It will provide about 800 inner city youth with instruction in swimming, football, modern dance, basketball, baseball, soccer, gymnastics, street and field hockey, volleyball, tennis, and track and field activities.

Participants will also receive a free medical examination, liability insurance, T-shirt, a daily meal, health education and counseling in study and career opportunities. Boys and girls, aged 10 to 18, as of June 1, should come to Tandy Recreation Center, 4206 W. Kennerly Ave., Lemay, Saturday, May 18, May 25, or June 1 at 9 a.m., for registration and medical examination.

Free to participants, the summer sports program is funded by a federal grant of $41,000 to the Lindenwood Colleges and sponsored by the National Collegiate Athletic Association and the President's Council of Physical Fitness and Sports. Funds from the United States Department of Agriculture will be used for the daily meals. Lindenwood is one of three area colleges selected to present federally funded sports programs this summer. This is the sixth summer Lindenwood has conducted the program.

Director of the Lindenwood program is Dr. Patrick F. Delaney, Jr., director of the men's athletics. Liaison director is Ms. Joy K. Ebest.

Further information on the program may be obtained by calling John Algee, 371-4180, or Mrs. Judy Lowery, 822-7110. Algee, men's program coordinator of the Lindenwood program, is also a basketball coach and administrative assistant to the principal of Sumner High School.

Mrs. Lowery, women's program coordinator of the Lindenwood program, is one of the outstanding women sports officials in the St. Louis area and is a physical education instructor in the Kirkwood schools.
Lindenwood Conducts Youth Sports Program

A National Youth Sports Program for young people aged 10 to 18 will be held June 20 through July 22 at Sumner High School, 4249 W. St. Ferdinand Ave, St. Louis. The free program, conducted by the Lindenwood Colleges, provides recreation and professional sports instruction. It is jointly sponsored by the Community Services Administration, the National Collegiate Athletic Association, the St. Louis Division of Recreation, the St. Louis Board of Education and the Lindenwood Colleges.

Sessions will be held each week day from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Activities include track and field, basketball, swimming, flag football, volleyball, tennis, soccer, gymnastics, street hockey and creative dance.

An educational program will supplement the professional sports instruction. Free breakfast and lunch will be provided to participants without regard to race, color or national origin, under a grant from the United States Department of Agriculture. A mini-bus will be available for transporting teams or groups to competitive games or field trips. Each participant will be provided with medical and liability insurance. A free T-shirt will be given to each person enrolled.

All participants must have a medical examination before the program begins. Free examinations will be given from 9 a.m. to 12 noon this Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at Sumner High School.

In addition to the program director, the staff will include 143 professional staff members and 16 students assistants. Additional information may be obtained by calling Sam Miller, activity director, at 535-6420; Ed Crenshaw, men's program coordinator, at 727-1752; or Judy Lowery, women's program coordinator, at 1-447-8912.
