Margaret Hoover Ketcham

Margaret Hoover Ketcham was selected to receive the 1996 Sibley Medallion of Honor because of her deep commitment to Lindenwood College.

Margaret, a 1933 graduate of Lindenwood, and her husband Lloyd have created the largest endowed scholarship managed by the College. Through their assistance, numerous students have benefitted from the individual attention and the liberal arts tradition at Lindenwood. Without the Ketcham's generosity, these students might not otherwise be able to attend receive the quality education Lindenwood provides.

She has also given of her time as a volunteer at the Nelson Art Gallery in Kansas City for more than 25 years, and to the people of Mexico as a clinic volunteer for over four decades.

Margaret Hoover Ketcham has been such an outstanding advocate for the College that her leadership and commitment has been a gift to all of us. Lindenwood College is proud to count among our alumni one who works so tirelessly to make life better for so many.
