HONOR ROLL OF DONORS 1993 & 1994
Dear Friends of Lindenwood,

It has been my privilege to serve as a member of Lindenwood’s Board of Directors for nine years and to function as chairman for the past two and a half years. It has been – and continues to be – a unique experience.

"Nothing that is worthwhile comes easily", is a familiar saying and certainly applies to the renaissance that has been taking place at Lindenwood for the past six years under the direction of President Dennis Spellmann. However, the cooperative effort of a great many people is required to achieve what has been accomplished. This includes the hard work of a wonderful faculty and staff, the administration and the deans of the various areas of study.

I would like to express a sincere thank you to those who earn their livelihood working at the College, as well as to the members of the various boards and volunteers who give so generously of their time because they believe in what Lindenwood is doing.

Last, but certainly not least, to those who generously contribute funds to Lindenwood for enhancing and expanding facilities to better serve our students and for creating an endowment that will ensure the future of this great institution – my heartfelt thanks. Our mission is that Lindenwood be second to none as a liberal arts college...truly serving those who seek a quality education in a value-centered environment.

With your continued support, we will achieve our mission. Thank you again.

Sincerely,

Raymond W. Harmon
Chairman of the Board
Message from the President

Dear Friends,

I have discovered during my years here at Lindenwood, that this historic college occupies a very special place in the hearts of its alumni and friends. If I were to ask the question "What does Lindenwood College mean to you?" of every person listed in these pages, I would receive hundreds of answers, all different, all heartfelt.

That's what makes Lindenwood College so unique: the personal commitment and loyalty of friends like you, who are dedicated to preserving the values and traditions of this College founded so long ago by Mary and George Sibley.

Lindenwood is blazing a trail in higher education, in the pioneering tradition of its founders, Mary and George Sibley. The combination of a solid liberal arts education that puts students first, faculty members who are dedicated to teaching and mentoring, and an emphasis on values, is a formula for success unequaled by any college in the country.

Our tremendous growth and progress is possible because of people like you, who so strongly believe in Lindenwood College's philosophy and the students we serve. I am proud to share with you this honor roll of donors, a booklet celebrating the loyalty and friendship of Lindenwood friends throughout the years.

We are proud of Lindenwood's past, confident about the present, and looking forward to the future. Thank you for your gifts to Lindenwood College.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Dennis C. Spellmann
President
Lindenwood’s greatest needs are for scholarships, capital and endowment funds. Upon your request, gifts may be tailored to your interests and giving potential. Lindenwood College will be pleased to name endowed chairs, scholarships, programs, laboratories and classrooms in your honor, or in memory of your loved ones. Each of these provides an opportunity for future generations of Lindenwood students to be reminded of your generosity and loyalty to this historic College.

Bequests

Bequests can provide substantial tax benefits to your heirs and estate while benefiting the College.

Gifts of Securities

Giving appreciated stocks, bonds, and mutual funds which you have owned at least one year and one day generally allows the donor to bypass capital gains tax which would be due if the donor sold the asset. Another advantage of giving securities is cash can be conserved while still making a gift. Each year gifts of securities join gifts of cash and gifts from estates as the top three giving methods at Lindenwood.

Gifts of Life Insurance

Irrevocable life insurance assigned to Lindenwood is an extremely practical way of making a significant contribution to the College - whether the policy is paid up, partially paid, or new. The tax benefits depend upon the status of the policy at the time of the gift.

Lifetime Trusts

During your lifetime, there are several ways you can create a trust that benefits Lindenwood and pays you and/or a beneficiary an income. The period during which this income is paid and the tax benefits that accrue to you (or your estate) depend upon the nature of the trust.

The Gift Annuity

A gift annuity is a way of giving to Lindenwood and assuring yourself and/or a beneficiary, a guaranteed income for life. Because part of your annual income is tax-free, this method of giving to the College may have exceptional advantages.

Gifts of Real Estate

Your gift of appreciated marketable real estate also benefits the College with certain advantages for you as well.

Your gifts to Lindenwood College are deductible to the full extent of federal and state tax laws. The College will send an official receipt for your records. As certain restrictions and formalities may apply to some of these gifts, the College requests that you consult with your attorney, financial planner and/or accountant when appropriate. Thank you for considering these giving options to insure the future of higher education for students at Lindenwood College. For more complete information about gift opportunities or types of gifts, call or write the Lindenwood College Development Office at (314) 949-4903.
Support To Safeguard the Future

Friends and alumni of Lindenwood participate in various ways to safeguard the future of the College. From support of the endowment to residential renewal, individuals who believe in Lindenwood have committed themselves to its mission. The members of the college community wish to offer a special word of gratitude to all Lindenwood supporters for their generosity and vision.

Lloyd and Margaret Hoover Ketcham (class of ’33) present a check for the endowment to Lindenwood College President Dennis Spellmann.

Endowment Growth

The past few years have been good to the Lindenwood endowment fund. Loyal Lindenwood supporters have helped bring the fund from a low point of $600,000 to over $6.2 million in less than five years. A healthy endowment helps ensure that the faculty and staff of Lindenwood College can continue to serve students of all ages in the field of higher education.

We wish to spotlight two of these supporters for their unfailing generosity to the Lindenwood College endowment in the past few years.

Margaret Hoover Ketcham, Class of 1933, and her husband Lloyd of Independence, Mo., are a couple who are the embodiments of giving spirits. Margaret has given of her time for over 25 years as a volunteer at the Nelson Art Gallery and to the people of Mexico as a clinic volunteer for more than four decades. Together, the Ketchams created Lloyd Ketcham Oldsmobile, a highly reputable business in Independence. Margaret and Lloyd not only offer their time but their resources to their community and also to Lindenwood. Their generous contributions have created the largest endowed scholarship managed by the College. Through their assistance, numerous students have benefited from the individual attention and the liberal arts tradition offered at Lindenwood. Their assistance specifically to students helps preserve the future.

Annual Giving

The Annual Fund is one of the most important funds at Lindenwood College, because it allows the College to provide the special services above and beyond that of other colleges -- services that make a Lindenwood education a quality experience. The Fund includes three key areas:

- Academic Programs, Scholarships, and Building Renovation. Your gifts enable more students to attend Lindenwood, increase the quality of LC’s academic programs, and continue the upkeep of this beautiful historical campus. Your gift does make a difference!

Residential Renewal

The residential campus is the heart of Lindenwood, both historically and physically. Over the past few years, the College has experienced a rebirth of its residential campus, a rebirth supported by the generosity of alumni and friends. Through various campaigns, nearly $600,000 was raised for much-needed capital improvements.

The restoration and reopening of Ayres (formerly Jubilee) Hall was the first major project, followed by the renovation and fourth floor completion of Irwin Hall.

The electric and plumbing in Sibley Hall has been modernized, while still maintaining its historical beauty, and improvements have been made to nearly all the residential halls over the past few years.

Several Lindenwood supporters have donated money specifically to the renovation campaigns, and have had floors, suites and rooms named after them. They include:

- Dorothy Warner Floor
  - (1st floor Ayres, Class of 1936)

- Barbara Ringer Hamill Floor
  - (2nd floor Ayres, Class of 1932)

- Calvert Floor (3rd floor Irwin)
  - Eloise Calvert (1937)
  - Nancy Calvert (1961)
  - Jane Calvert Rogers (1967)

Residential Honor Walk

Many donors choose to support Lindenwood renovations through the Residential Renewal Honor Walk. Donors are recognized with their names on a brick paver, which has a prominent place among the walks of the campus. The first walk is located in front of Roemer Hall.
Named in honor of Colonel James and Margaret Leggat Butler, Lindenwood's most generous supporters in the 1900's, this distinguished group of loyal friends has followed in the Butlers' footsteps by committing their resources to promote the precious heritage of Lindenwood and to support its vision for the future. The members represent all walks of life and service in a variety of capacities for the College, including members from the Board of Directors, Board of Overseers, Alumni Board, faculty, and administration.

"I will stand by you to the last button on my vest." - Colonel James G. Butler

The Sibley Heritage Society takes its name from the estate planning done by Major George and Mary Easton Sibley. These plans resulted in the gift of the College to the Presbyterian Church in the 1850’s. Because Major and Mrs. Sibley planned for Lindenwood, the names of George and Mary Easton Sibley continue today, as does the college they founded. The Sibley Heritage Society recognizes those who plan for Lindenwood’s future by including Lindenwood in their estate, by making a gift of a paid up insurance policy, or by donating planned gifts such as trusts, annuities or property.
