LINDENWOOD COLLEGE
HONOR ROLL OF DONORS 1996

We met the challenge!

In 1994, the Mabee Foundation gave a $1 million challenge to Lindenwood. One year later, we got the job done. Thanks to Mabee...thanks to everyone who helped us meet the challenge!

Thanks a million!

Dennis Spellmann
President

Raymond Harmon
Chairman of the Board
Annual Giving
July 1, 1995 through June 30, 1996

Confidence in the Mission of Lindenwood

One of the best measures of confidence in Lindenwood's future has been the growth of its endowment fund over the past six years. Gifts and additions to our endowment exceeded $1.5 million for the year just completed. Friends and alumni made gifts to establish memorial scholarship funds, endowed convocation awards, and for general support of the College.

!Endowment Growth

Lindenwood is thankful for the generosity of our friends, alumni and corporate partners during 1995-96. Total current gifts exceeded $2.1 million and for the first time in Lindenwood's illustrious history, gifts to our Annual Fund were more than $1 million.

As the breadth and depth of support for our College continues to grow, Lindenwood is able to provide more educational opportunities for its students and thus, our community.

Our Corporate Partners

Area businesses continued to demonstrate their confidence in the mission and performance of Lindenwood College in 1995-96. Our corporate partners recognize Lindenwood students are well prepared to become productive employees and responsible members of society upon their graduation.

Key corporate gifts for the year included important support of scholarships, gifts for academic programs, and support of capital improvements. Additionally, adult and professional students from more than 60 companies participated in adult undergraduate and professional graduate courses during the 1995-96 academic year.

Lindenwood College appreciates the confidence our corporate partners have demonstrated in our mission through their generous investment in the future of the College.

20/20 Vision

Mary Easton Sibley had a vision for our college that many of you share today. She wanted Lindenwood College to always be "up to date" and "out in front" in the field of higher education.

Important support from our alumni, friends and corporate partners will allow us to remain true to Mary Sibley's vision. As we near the end of the 20th Century, we move toward 200 years of providing the best educational experience possible.

We invite you to share Mary Sibley's 20/20 vision and play an important role in continuing the mission of our College for future generations of students.
Performance Arena Campaign: Victory!

"We have met the Mabee Challenge!" One hundred and fifty people were on hand to cheer as Lindenwood College President Dennis Spellmann made that announcement in mid-1995.

Less than a year before, the J.E. and L.E. Mabee Foundation of Tulsa, Oklahoma, one of the nation’s most prestigious philanthropic organizations, agreed to grant Lindenwood $1,000,000 toward the construction of the new arena. Lindenwood raised another million and much more, to meet the Mabee challenge in record time.

Today, thanks to the Mabee Foundation, the Lindenwood College Performance Arena is a reality. The Mabee Gymnasium, heart of the Arena, is home court to Lindenwood’s volleyball, basketball and wrestling teams, as well as a venue for concerts and other performance events.

Now, as the Arena opens for the 1996-97 winter sports season, the culmination of the College’s largest building campaign in history is at hand, the result of years of hard work and commitment from hundreds of people.

Corporate partners, private citizens, friends and alumni of the College have all been instrumental in the building of this facility. Gifts to the Performance Arena at Lindenwood College, combined with effective cost management, have helped to bring in a beautiful building well within budget.

The Arena’s features include an impressive VIP Room with separate entrance, food preparation area, and the ability to host meetings and receptions for up to 400 people. The VIP Room opens on to the Luxury Skybox Pavilion, a premier vantage point for some 250 seatholders to enjoy arena events.

The design of the Arena successfully blends the Lindenwood of yesterday, today, and tomorrow. The exterior of the building reflects the neo-classicist architecture of Lindenwood’s other historic buildings, while housing a thoroughly modern, state-of-the-art performance and sports facility.

Teamwork

The spirit of teamwork which pervades today’s Lindenwood College is unprecedented. The coalescing of individual effort toward a common goal has been vital to Lindenwood as it strives to fulfill its commitment to being one of the nation’s finest liberal arts colleges.

Never has that teamwork been more visible than 1995-96. Thanks to the combined efforts and generosity of hundreds of individuals and organizations, Lindenwood has for the first time in its Annual Fund history topped the $1 million mark in gifts from faithful supporters. This amount represents a 26.7 percent increase over last year.

The $1 million represents more than a rallying of financial support, though generosity of financial resources is an important part of the story. The figure also represents an indispensable expenditure of time and emotion on the part of many people.

In the end, despite the tendency to focus on dollar figures, our report is not about numbers. It is about the students we serve. It is about you.
Named in honor of Colonel James and Margaret Leggat Butler, the Butler Society is composed of Lindenwood’s most generous supporters. This distinguished group of loyal friends has followed in the Butlers’ footsteps by committing their resources to promote the precious heritage of Lindenwood and to support its vision for the future.

During the early 1900’s, funds from the Butlers’ estate led to the construction of nearly half the major buildings on campus, with their total contributions equaling more than 25 million in today’s dollars. Their dreams for Lindenwood are being realized today, with thousands of alumni benefiting from the Butlers’ personal mission to make Lindenwood one of the finest educational institutions in America. Butler Society members share in the growth and development of one of the nation’s leading independent, liberal arts teaching institutions.

Your unrestricted gift gives our College the flexibility to use the funds where the need or potential return is the greatest. Membership in the Society is secured through your lifetime giving level to Lindenwood College. We invite you to share in the Lindenwood vision by calling the Lindenwood Office of Institutional Advancement at (314) 949-4903.
