Music at Lednower.

The Lednower college hall, Friday evening, was of very high order. It was not only a great event in a musical educational opportunity in the area of music, but also a gathering of prominent musicians.

"Fantasie Caprice" by Louis Mappey, given by the gifted young musicians, was a great career before her. One hardly knows whether to admire the brilliance of her performance or to envy the audience's ears. Her interpretation, at once electrifying and brilliant, captivated and held the audience. Her fingers glided effortlessly over the keys, creating a symphony of sound. Her performance was a testament to her skill and dedication to the art of music.

"Les Préludes" by Liszt and "Chants de Bayon" by Saint-Saëns were also performed, showcasing the diverse repertoire of the musicians. Their precision and harmonious collaboration were evident in every note.

Miss Blackman's and Miss Mason's duet was a highlight of the evening. Their voices blended seamlessly, creating a harmonious blend of melody and harmony. Their performance was a testament to their talent and dedication to the art of music.

The vocal members, Miss Westonfield and Miss Stenoble, provided harmonious backing vocals, adding depth and richness to the musical performance.

The president, Mr. Westfield, in his speech, congratulated the performers and admired their talent. He expressed his appreciation for the musicians' dedication and hard work.

The audience was graced with a performance of "The Magic Flute" by Mozart, sung by Mr. Mason, accompanied by Miss Westfield. The performance was met with enthusiastic applause from the audience.

The evening concluded with a closing address by Mr. Westfield, thanking the performers and the audience for their participation and enjoyment.

Overall, the evening was a resounding success, showcasing the talent and dedication of the Lednower musicians. It was a memorable event that will be fondly remembered by all who were fortunate enough to attend.
