THE LINDEN LEAVES ARE WHISPERING

By Dr. Stener

Congratulations to Denny Moss on her recent engagement. That's a mighty pretty ring on your finger too.

Great Jean Robb on her way to Miami University for a gay week end. Buy her a Godiva for me, will ya?

Guess everyone has heard that Tippy Tipton, after a long marriage, finally received her Phil Delta pin.

Did you notice—Lucy Jackson headed for the Lindenwoods TV, Treadwell? Jackie Fisk evading the iron of the October 15th dance.

Jane Sebastian was in Rolls, Mo., for a few days. Our loss was Georgia’s gain.

S. S. Lindewendt

Laied Up After

Honorable War Record

The United States Maritime Commission has announced that the SS Lindenweld Victory has been laid up in the James River at Hampton Roads, Va.

The Lindewendt was commissioned during World War II and named for Lindenwood College. The college received the honor because of the active part it played in the war effort.

The SS Lindewendt has been idle since August 31, 1949, when it was completed from New York to a voyage to Antwerp. Lindenwood College donated funds for a library aboard the ship for the benefit of the crew.

Janet Brown Attends Association Press Meet

In Minneapolis Minn.

College editors got together and arranged luncheons at the Hotel Berrien of the Associated Collegiate Press In Minneapolis, Minn. Yearbook editors discussed lack of money and rising printing prices, while news editors reported on student quality and faculty opposition to college newspapers. Four hundred delegates from thirty-two states and Can-

And we present to tear by tales by the members of the Minnesota University’s School of Journalism and to participate in round-table discussions led by representatives pf printing and organizing companies.

The Minneapolis Star Tribune gave a banquet for the delegates, featuring a group of brief, informative speeches.

The Associated Press was held and the delegates were ad-hocracy on the “Battle of Washington.” Janet Brown, editor of the Linden Leaves, attended from here.
