BY AUTHORITY.

JOHN QUINCY ADAMS,

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

To all whom these presents shall come,

WHEREAS a Treaty between the United States of America, Great and Little Ogeechee, and the towns and cities of the United States and those of the Mexican Republic, and, to all persons and inhabitants thereof, they shall, in all cases, have the benefit of the law of the land, and shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of citizens of the United States, and such other benefits as the laws of the United States may confer.

WHEREAS the Congress of the United States of America, by an act of Congress, has authorized the President of the United States to appoint commissioners to the United States and to the Mexican Republic, and to the citizens of the United States, and to such other persons and inhabitants thereof, they shall, in all cases, have the benefit of the law of the land, and shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of citizens of the United States, and such other benefits as the laws of the United States may confer.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JOHN QUINCY ADAMS, President of the United States, do hereby appoint, and do appoint, the following persons, to be commissioners, for the purpose aforesaid:

1. Benjamin H. Reeves, George S. Gilley, and Thomas Wither, to be commissioners for the purpose of negotiating and entering into a treaty with the Indians of the Great and Little Ogeechee Tribes, under the laws of the United States, and to receive and hold the same for the use and benefit of the United States.

2. James F. Hinde, and James S. Hinde, to be commissioners to receive and hold the same for the use and benefit of the United States, and to receive and hold the same for the use and benefit of the United States.

3. James F. Hinde, and James S. Hinde, to be commissioners to receive and hold the same for the use and benefit of the United States.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have caused the seal of the United States to be affixed to these presents, and signed them, at Washington, this 10th day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five.

JOHN QUINCY ADAMS,

President of the United States.

By authority,

John H. Reaves.

Secretary of State.
