It will be recollected that the editor of the Monitor stated in a paper, just before the election, that Mr. Birch (this brother) would get "overwhelming" majorities in the above counties. Believing it a part of the county," in their declaration, for the purpose of defeating Dr. Bull's election—there being no probability of the success of Birch—we hunted, in our story of the Monitor, after his repeated declaration, that the race would be between Strother and Birch—that Bull would be a "cheerful" candidate, and that Birch would get "overwhelming" majorities in the above counties, we expressed our intention of "especially recording" these votes, when they were cast. And if it was important, will that promise be kept?—or will you annex them? We think we may,
