Freshmen Elect
Price President;
Stanley L. Veep

Nicole S. Hwang swept the board clear of opposition with a total of freshman class officers Tuesday by topping all tickets. Also elected were Patsy Price of Fort Smith, Ark., who was elected president of the class, and Stanley L. Veep of Bentonville, Ark., who was named chairman.

Vice President is Diane Stanley of Guatemalan City, Guatemala. Other officers include Sunil Pandurkar, Kelli B., secretary; John Otto, Fort Smith, Ark., treasurer; Carolyn Sonich and Richard L. Keller, council representative; and Catherine Zaun, Affton, Mo., intramural chairman.

Carolyn and Catherine retain the positions they held in the freshman year, but Sunil and Stanley replace acting secretary and treasurer, Mattie Sue Winters and Mollie Hoover.

Founder's Ghost
Will Walk Again

It is midnight in the cemetery. Shadows dart in the pale moonlight.

Who can tell whether they are emanations from the bodies of the boys from Sibley Chapel who were buried there? A wail, a scream, a howl, a groan, a sob, a laugh, a sneer, a sigh, a moan. The first ghost of the season to appear, the ghost of Sibley.

Sibley Chapel is the only place where the ghosts can gather. The church has ceased to be the center of their existence.

The building has been sold for a dollar and the ghosts have no place to go. They roam the aisles, the pews, the steps, the doorways, the windows, the walls, the ceiling, the floor, the floorboards, the steps, the pews, the aisles, the church.
