Lindenwood Alumnae Married in Club Room

On Monday morning, November 6, at 6:30 a.m., a wedding ceremony was performed in the library club room of the Lindenwood University offices. The bride and groom were Miss Ruth Howe and Mr. Leon Boyd Stedabinhson. Miss Howe graduated from Lindenwood College in 1936, and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Howe of the apartments of St. Louis, Mr. Etechin and Mrs. C. E. Etechin, of Elwood, Ind. He is a graduate of the Indiana University and Business College, 1934.

The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hirschberg of Elwood. The bride wore a gray silk outfit. Following the wedding a breakfast meeting was held at the Coronado Hotel, to a few relatives and close friends.

graduate of the park was present, were: Mrs. and Mrs. Lawrence Hirschberg Ind., Mrs. Mary Ray, and Mrs. Nettie Carroll, aunts of the bride from Elwood; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Magee, aunts of Miss Imogene Parrish, Elwood, and Mrs. Myrtle Goyt, St. Louis.

Beverly Mayhall, of Lindenwood, played the piano, and the wedding couple will be at home in Elwood after a few weeks trip through the East.

Graduate of '95 Visits

Mrs. Perrie Alin-Smith, Dean of Women of the University of Southern California, spoke at chapel Monday afternoon. She was traveling over the country, visiting the different campuses to find out what the women of the colleges are doing. She said that she would not have come to Lindenwood for so many years, but she expressed her delight in being able to call on Mrs. Alin-Smith here. She exclaimed over the fresh new Fine Arts building, and it to a room in her beauty and grace.

Mrs. R. K. Barton (formerly Ann Donnell, 1938) gave birth to a daughter, Bonnie Alice, at St. John's Hospital. The baby weighed 7 pounds, and has been named after both of her grandmothers.

Pg Gamma Mu held a business and initiation meeting November 6, at which seven members and two faculty members were present: Margaret Barton, Helen Rose Bruns, and Margaret MacDonald were initiated. They were welcomed by the president, and their year, and refreshments were served.

In spite of the cold weekend, November 3, there were two hay rides. On Friday, the junior class had one and on Saturday evening, the sophomores entertained the seniors. In the foreground, they ate steak, hot dogs, apples, marshmallow and then returned to the college.

Shirley Crocke was the guest at Marion Claridge at the latter's home in St. Louis over the week end of November 3.

Virginia Vech, Geneva Lewis, Peggy Davidson, Norma White, and Ardelle Welter spent the week end of November 3 as guests at Stephens College in Columbia, Mo.

Reception for Mr. Ching

In honor of Mr. Richard Ching's visit to Lindenwood to see his daughter, Charlotte, and niece, Hana, the girls of Lindenwood had a reception, Wednesday evening, November 1. Dr. Roemer and Miss Morris were also present.

During the evening, the following guests were presented: Carl Larson and Polly Gray sang a duet, "Indian Love Call" accompanied by Daniel Neubauer. They sang "The Man I Love." Charlotte Ching danced some of the dances of Hawaii, and Mr. Ching expressed his appreciation of Lindenwood.

Punch and wafers were served.

Alpha Sigma Tau held a meeting in the Library Club rooms at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, November 3. Several women live in Wichita Falls, Tex.

Standing Rock Costumes Clever

Mary Elizabeth Standing Rock was crowned the freshman queen at the annual Y. W. C. A. Halloween dance, Friday, October 27. The outgoing queen, Kay Abernathy, her two co-maid-maids were first maid, Carol Bindley, and second maid, Jean McCullough. Mary Jean Dungar joined the freshman queen in her crowning.

Dances in various costumes continued throughout the evening, and cider and doughnuts proved to be a favorite item. Everyone had a good time served. The gym was decorated in orange and black, the traditional Halloween colors. Dr. Roemer and Marge Dearmont led the grand march, followed by the girls in their costumes passing before the judges. Immediately afterward the prizes were presented.

The unusual award went to the class of Mary Medaris and Martha Marshall in pajamas and robes, carrying an improvised crown over Isabelle Snider who was dressed in various bath towels. The Harum won the prize for the best-dressed group. Twilla Graham of the junior class of Lorraine Wurtz dressed in a costume of Minnie the Monkey, who wore a suit of St. Louis in April. The committee which did the work in St. Louis on November 16 to discuss future plans.

The comparative anatomy class went on a field trip, October 29, to make any new collections that they could. Mary Ann Green and Mimi Wiedeking, who were both students living on campus, were guests at the dinner and picnic. Several town girls also went along and there were twelve in all.

Paul Schroeder, director of the St. Louis: Simonsfied, is a cousin of Lorraine Allen, a freshman living in St. Louis. Lorraine enjoys the program very much, and had a very nice visit with Mr. Schroeder and his wife after the concert.

Helen Kane spent the week end of October 27 with her cousin, Charlotte McFarland in Quincy, III.

Miss Evelyn Cohen will entertain as her guests for the week-end at her home in Chester, Miss. Her guests are: Lou Tatum, Jo Meredith, Dorothy Miller, and Phoe Mae Craves.

Lorraine Allen and Elaine Cor rick spent the week end at the University of Illinois for the homecoming. Ann Thompson also went to Champaign and was a guest at the Delta Gamma House.

Guests of Jean Osborn for the last week end of October were two students, Mimi Wiedeking and Mary Ann Green.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Mathias; son, Bob; daughter, and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. LaFleur, visited Dorothy Jean Mathias, a sophomore, for the week-end.

Margaret Sandefice visited Betty Ruth at the University of Missouri on the weekend past.

Witches Walk at Lindenwood

On Monday night, October 30, Lindenwood celebrated Halloween with plenty in the dining rooms. There was a surprise party—at least there were a chorus of "ohs" and "ahs," as girls entered the darkened dining room, which was lighted only by the little jack-o-lanterns hanging from the center of each table. At each place there were colorful paper napkins and carved pumpkins containing hats and fortunes. The dining room was a gay place as everyone opened her hat and put on her hat. During the evening, an impromptu amateur theater was staged by various girls. With Cordelia Buck at the piano, several group songs were sung, and a group dance song by Terry Larson, Anne Welborn, and Dixie Smith. This "amateur hour" pleased everyone, that Dr. Roemer has suggested making it a regular part of the week's activities in the dining room.

Although the party was on Monday, not for the lack of decorations. Betty was really Halloween, as the amounts of leaves, cranberries, and an soap chips found in various beds could testify. All the odd tricks of ambulance, and few added, also revived. Lindenwood girls never forgot that Halloweens is the time when witches walk!

Dr. Charles C. McCracken, General Director, Department of Colleges, Presbyterian Board of Christian Education, made his first visit to Lindenwood from October 27 to 28. Dr. McCracken is a very enthusiastic educationalist.

Miss Otter will serve on the workshop committee or arrange at the national meeting of College Registrants on behalf of Saint Louis in April. The committee will meet in St. Louis on November 16 to discuss future plans.

The comparative anatomy class went on a field trip, October 29, to make any new collections that they could. Mary Ann Green and Mimi Wiedeking, who were both students living on campus, were guests at the dinner and picnic. Several town girls also went along and there were twelve in all.

Paul Schroeder, director of the St. Louis: Simonsfied, is a cousin of Lorraine Allen, a freshman living in St. Louis. Lorraine enjoys the program very much, and had a very nice visit with Mr. Schroeder and his wife after the concert.

Helen Kane spent the week end of October 27 with her cousin, Charlotte McFarland in Quincy, III.

Miss Evelyn Cohen will entertain as her guests for the week-end at her home in Chester, Miss. Her guests are: Lou Tatum, Jo Meredith, Dorothy Miller, and Phoe Mae Craves.

Lorraine Allen and Elaine Cor rick spent the week end at the University of Illinois for the homecoming. Ann Thompson also went to Champaign and was a guest at the Delta Gamma House.

Guests of Jean Osborn for the last week end of October were two students, Mimi Wiedeking and Mary Ann Green.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Mathias; son, Bob; daughter, and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. LaFleur, visited Dorothy Jean Mathias, a sophomore, for the week-end.

Margaret Sandefice visited Betty Ruth at the University of Missouri on the weekend past.

Art Club Elects Officers

The Art Club of Lindenwood has elected as its officers for the coming year: president: Ada Finkelson, vice president; Lothar Lohse, secretary; Shirley Crocke, and treasurer: Helen Farmer.

Pheasants Very Tasty

Harriet Dillman entertained with a pheasant dinner at the Hollywood Hotel, Friday night, October 31. Her father had brought the pheasant to her from a hunting trip in Nebraska and Colorado. Those attending the dinner, besides the hostess, were Mrs. R. H. Martin, Virginia McCutty, Jean Birkett, Betty Rowe, Jane Goodjohn, Jackie Morrison, Harriet Wilson, Barbara Bruce, Shirley Crocke, and Phyllis Carpenter.

Molly Guard and Roberta Schuller went from Ayres Hall to the Missouri Military Academy dance November 4.

Betty Kent spent the weekend of November 3 in Columbia, Mo. She and her parents visited her brother and attended the Missouri-Nebaska football game.

Lorraine Allen, Elaine Corrck, Harriet Thistlewood, and Mary Elizabeth Standingtide attended a homecoming at the University of Illinois.

Betty Tatum, Flora Mae Cravans, Dorothy Owen, and Jo Meredith spent the week-end with Evelyn Cohen at her home in Chester, I1l.

Grace Quebeman and Mimi Putterm an visited friends in Greencastle, Ind.

Molly Guard and Martha Robbins visited Missouri Military Academy enjoying various Homecoming events.

Ruth Haines and Georgia Shap low spent the week-end at Christian College. While in Columbia, they saw the Missouri-Nebaska game, which was played Saturday afternoon.

Anne Thompson visited in Cham pagne, Ill. over the weekend.

Kay Salyer, Frances Brandenburg, and Shirley Carlson spent the week-end in Champaign.

Marion Olber was visited by her mother and father over the week-end. The Ohlens are from Valpar aise, Ind.

HELP

KING'S KIDDIES

For finest...

Malted Milks

and

Other Dairy Drinks

Visit Your Dairy Shop

ST. LOUIS DAIRY CO.

BENTON AVE. & CLAY ST.