The Secretary of War has directed that the annuity for the Osage Indians shall be supplied for the year from your Factory. You will therefore deliver on pawn black's application or to his order in value of 500 as shown by the drawee sent from the Office, and in such articles as he may require. Also to the Great Osage to amount of $1,000, and to the Little Osage Tribe to amount of 500. You will make distinct drawee for each by duplicate and get them signed by pawn black and forward them to the Office.

You will be careful to make up the annuity of goods merchandise and such as will give satisfaction to the Indians. At the same time so far as black may find it right to yield to such a delegation to make it with a little injury to your appointment for trade as can be done —
